Pyrmont, July 8, N. S.

ON Thursday last (the 5th Instant) the King after having dined at Herrenhausen set out for this Place, where he arrived that Evening, and the next Day reposed himself; Yesterday His Majesty began drinking the Waters, which agree with him very well, and (God be praised) he is in perfect Health. His Majesty intends continuing them for fourteen Days as usual, and then to rest one Day, after which he will return to Hanover. The Prince of Waldeck came hither Yesterday with all his Court, to compliment His Majesty upon His Arrival here; where he intends to stay as long as the King, and To-Day his Highness entertained the Lord Townshend, as also most of the Chief Officers attending His Majesty here, in a most magnificent manner. On the 27th past M. de Sporke His Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the States General as Elector of Hanover, came hither. The Marquess de Courtance Envoy Extraordinary from the King of Sardinia, arrived at Hanover the 25th; as did also the Marquess de Marquetti. M. Walsendrodt Envoy Extraordinary from his Prussian Majesty, who is now at Berlin, is expected at Hanover in fourteen Days time. The Secretary to Colonel Dubourgay his Majesty's Envoy Extraordinary to the King of Prussia, who brought Dispatches from Berlin, returned back Yesterday, after having hired a House for the Envoy who has obtained His Majesty's Leave to come to Hanover. His Highness the Duke of Wolfenbuttle intends to set out this Day from Hambourg (where he has been some Days to take his Diversion) for Saltzdahle a Country Seat of his own, where he proposes to reside till Brunswick Fair, which will be held the 2d of August next.

Whitehall, July 5.

His Majesty has been pleased to appoint Edward Allen, Esq; to be Consul for the British Nation at Naples.

Whitehall, Feb. 3, 1724.

Whereas His Majesty's Exchequer was broke open between Monday-Noon and this Morning, and a considerable Sum of Money was taken out of the Office of the Right Honourable the Lord William Powlet: This is to give Notice, That if any Person concerned in the said Felony, or being any ways privy thereto, by advising or contriving the same, will surrender himself and make a free Discovery of his Accomplice or Accomplices, so as they or any one of them shall be apprehended and convicted for the same, such Person, whether concerned in the said Felony, or in advising, contriving or being privy thereto, shall have His Majesty's most gracious Pardon; and as a further Encouragement shall have a Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid by the Right Honourable the Lords Commissioners of His Majesty's Treasury. And if any other Person or Persons shall discover, apprehend, and convict any Person or Persons concerned in the said Felony, he or they shall receive the like Reward of One Thousand Pounds, to be paid in like Manner.
